

St. Thomas' College of Law

Faculty Profile

Ms. Arisha Azhar
(Assistant Professor)

Arisha Azhar holds a B.A.LL.B. from Jamia Millia Islamia and an LL.M., complemented by her UGC NET qualification in Law. She further expanded her academic portfolio with an M.A. in Conflict Analysis and Peace Building and an MBA in Human Resources and Marketing, both from the prestigious Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi.

She has demonstrated her leadership and organizational skills by participating in and organizing several moot court competitions. Notably, she won the prestigious Best Memorial Award as a researcher in the Intra Faculty Moot Court Competition at Jamia Millia Islamia.

She has also made significant contributions to legal scholarship, having authored numerous research papers and publications in various journals. She has also won accolades in legal essay competition. In addition, she also actively participated in and presented at numerous national and international seminars, enriching the academic discourse with her insights. Her passion for teaching has led her to impart knowledge at various coaching institutions, where she has successfully prepared aspiring law students for their careers.

As an Assistant Professor of Law, she is committed to fostering a dynamic and engaging learning environment for her students. She aims to inspire the next generation of legal professionals with her deep understanding of law, interdisciplinary approach and practical experience in the field.